"HATS"

Better Hats, Beautiful Hats, Becoming Hats—The Most Important Article of Woman's Dress—The Most Conspicuous.

No matter how elaborate or expensive the Suit, Dress, and all the other many little "accessories" and fixings may be, if a woman fails to get a becoming, stylish hat of at least fair quality material, she will cheapen and ruin her "outfit" and spoil an otherwise striking or attractive appearance. She will also suffer the self-conscious embarrassment of knowing and feeling that "uncomfortable feeling" which will come from the knowledge that she is wearing a hat that is not in every way correct and in keeping with her ideas and other garments.

Easter and Easter Hats

This looks to be one of the greatest Millinery seasons we have had in years. Hat buying started unusually early. It has been necessary for us to put on additional Salesladies and Milliners in order to keep many beautiful hats made up and ready, and to keep up with the special orders. However, regardless of what the rush or how heavy the hat buying during February and March, there always has been and always will be what is known in Millinery Stores as the "Easter Rush" for two weeks previous to Easter. With our splendid stock and competent force of efficient trimmers and salesladies we are able to handle the unusual business we expect, but we ask that you come for your Easter Hats at your very earliest convenience. We are "On the Job" and ready to help you six days in the week. Just Millinery—that's all.

We are giving away a handsome One Hundred Dollar Grafanola Outfit FREE. Step in and let us play your favorite pieces on it and learn particulars.

Miss Shirley Gets First Place

Miss Helen Shirley, representing the Central high school, was awarded first place in the annual Pickens County Girls' Declamation contest which was held in the Central school auditorium last Friday night. Miss Ruby Jones of Liberty won second place, and Miss Margaret Wyatt of Easley got third.

On account of the exceedingly unfavorable weather not a very large crowd was present at the exercises. The representative of the Six Mile school was not present. Following was the program:

Music.

Miss Winnie Coleman, Dacusville—"The Soul of the Violin."

Miss Ruby Jones, Liberty—"The Jitters."

Miss Eleanor Earle, Pickens—"The Prisoner's Plea."

Music.

Miss Helen Shirley, Central—"Where Ignorance is Bliss."

Miss Margaret Wyatt, Easley—"Over the Baluster."

Miss Lillian Sammons, Roanoke—"Where Ignorance is Bliss."

Music.

The judges were Prof. McDaniel, of Clemson College, Miss Dorothy Mahon, of Greenville and Miss Laura Agnew of Westminster.

The gold medal awarded each year to the winner of first place is given by I. M. Mauldin, of Pickens; the medal for second place is given by R. G. Gaines, of Central.

The boys' oratorical contest will be held in the Easley school auditorium on Friday night, April 14, and the county track meet will be held at Easley the next day, Saturday.

Popular Couple Married

Mr. Ernest F. Alexander and Miss Freddie May McDaniel, of Pickens, were married last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moore, near Forest City, N. C., Rev. J. A. Bowles, pastor of the Forest City Methodist church, officiating. Mrs. Moore is a sister of the bride. This happy event was a surprise to all except the most intimate friends of the contracting parties.

Mr. Alexander is a member of the firm of Pickens Hardware and Grocery Co. and is a young man of sterling character and business ability. He is one of the most popular men in Pickens county.

The bride is the youngest child of the late J. H. G. McDaniel and was reared in Pickens, where her friends are numbered by her acquaintances. A young lady of fine disposition and clever mind, she is popular wherever she goes.

The Sentinel joins with many other friends in congratulating the happy couple.

In about two weeks they will begin housekeeping in Pickens.

Olive Camp W. O. W. of Cross Roads will unveil a monument to the memory of the late Gov. J. R. McCombs at Cedar Rock church on the 16th of April at p. m. All sovereigns especially and the public generally are invited.

Cedar Rock Items

Mrs. Malinda Smith is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Ferguson of the Bethlehem section.

Misses Minnie Day of Easley and Janet and Lucile Couch of the Enon vicinity visited at the home of H. R. Jones Sunday.

Mrs. McD. Farmer had as her guests the past week her sister, Mrs. Duncan, and her daughter, Mrs. Remus Henderson, of Anderson. They spent Thursday in Greenville as the guests of Mrs. Robert Dilworth.

Mr. J. T. Mauldin of Spencer, N. C., was in this vicinity last week visiting relatives enroute to Mobile, Ala., where he expects to visit W. D. and H. G. Miller of that city.

Mrs. J. W. Stewart spent the week-end in Greenville as guest of her mother, Mrs. Robertson.

Mr. Weldon Jones of Easley, spent the week-end with home-folks.

SUSIE.

Pleasant Grove News

Farmers are very busy preparing their land for another crop.

Prof. Locke, of Travelers Rest, was in this section on business recently.

Mrs. Willie Moody, who has been very sick, is some better at this writing.

Miss Lillie Fortner is also sick.

Several from this section are attending U. S. court in Greenville. Some as witnesses and others for blockading.

Our mail carrier on Pickens route 6, Henry Jones, is sporting a new buggy. We are well pleased with the way Mr. Jones handles our mail.

Miss Ida Fortner, who has been spending several months in Greenville, has returned home to spend the summer.

Well, if we don't have any more cold weather we will have plenty of fruit.

The old whippoorwill is brave enough tonight to let his bill ring.

Well, Mr. Editor, can you tell the writer what is made longer by cutting off both ends?

A FARMER.

Pumpkintown "Deadhead" Stuff

Pumpkintown, April 10. — Caesar's Head mountains, which can be seen from here, were white with snow early Sunday morning. The snow must have been rather light, tho, as it soon all disappeared.

We believe that the saddest funeral we ever attended was that of little Etta Fortner, who was burned to death last Saturday at the home of her parents in Pleasant Grove section. We extend our sympathy to the grief-stricken parents and friends of the child.

J. F. Welborn has just had all the limbs cut off the big oak tree that grows in his yard. We suppose that it injured his crops last year, that is, the cool shade together with its noonday temptation did.

When we go into a certain region of which we know, we feel something like we imagine the poor little jenny wren felt among canaries. And now the inhabitants of that country sometimes call each other "trash." Well, we're not going to grumble since we have very few friends in that neighborhood, and we suppose it is none of our business what they call each other.

We're not feeling very well this morning; old man Jack Frost came to see us last night, and we're nearly frost-bitten; besides, we believe he has gobbled up all the little peaches hereabouts, so we're going to stop writing and go out to the field and burn some brush and try to realize that it is spring.

After trying every thing we could think of, and then some, we have found a suitable title for our news at last. Look back and read it. CEDRIC.

Shower for Miss Boggs

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was the miscellaneous shower given for the popular bride-to-be, Miss Marna Boggs, at the home of Mrs. G. R. Hendricks, on last Tuesday afternoon. All the young ladies of the town were present and a number of tables were arranged throughout the rooms for progressive games which were greatly enjoyed for about an hour. Miss Lorena Taylor was the lucky winner of the prize. After the games the guests were invited to the dining-room which was beautifully decorated with yellow and white. In the center of the table was a large yellow covered box surrounded by small yellow baskets, each filled with rice and attached to the big box by a white ribbon. Each guest was given a basket and told to pull when the top of the box came off and was found to be filled with presents for the bride. On each basket, which were issued as favors, was perched a "blue bird," the emblem for "happiness." Block cream and cake in the color scheme of yellow and white were served. Mrs. Hendricks is an ideal hostess. She was assisted by Mesdames J. P. Carey, Jr., L. C. Thornley, T. J. Mauldin, C. B. Hagood and Miss Emily Thornley. As the guests left they "showered" the bride with rice.

Don't forget the county singing convention at Secona Saturday and Sunday.

F. Van Clayton is announced for Superintendent of Education this week. He is a son of Dr. L. G. Clayton, of Central, and is a competent gentleman.

The Character of a Store
